

Self Assessment Application Form

This is completed on-line at <http://iyp.co.uk>.

Companies will need to register their intention to apply for the IYP Award and then complete the on-line self assessment application form.

There are three steps to completing the self assessment application form.

Step 1. - The form has been designed for ease of use by employers. Please read The Guidance Notes before attempting to complete the form. The Guidance Notes provide examples of how each different activity may be scored when completing the form. Using these guidelines employers are required to assess their own details and activity against each question and allocate their evidence that in their view, justifies their self assessment score.

Step 2. - Upload supporting documentation (optional).

Step 3. - Make payment.

Questions:

1. How does your company policy or business plan reference your commitment to supporting young people?
2. How do you promote your company's commitment to supporting young people to: a) your staff b) the wider community and stakeholders?
3. How have you helped to develop the employability skills of young people in the past 24 months?
4. What enterprise activities have you supported in schools or through education providers in the past 24 months?
5. What work experience have you supported in the past 24 months?
6. Have you taken on an apprentice in the past 24 months?
7. Does your website have specific information aimed at young people, describing the great job opportunities that exist in your business?
8. Aside from your website information what job and careers information have you shared with young people, teachers and careers staff in the past 24 months?
9. Have you partnered, attended, organised or taken part in a Careers Event in the last 24 months?
10. What quality assurance kitemark(s) does your organisation hold? (This question is not scored, it is for information only).